From the Oriental Chair...

Brethren,

It is my most sincere hope that you and your loved ones were fortunate enough to have had a most joyous and happy holiday season and are looking forward to a fun and prosperous new year, both within and without the quarries of Freemasonry. Also, I would like to express my gratitude to the brethren for their confidence to allow me, once again, to serve you as Worshipful Master. Together we can endeavor to build on the past work of others, to improve and advance, our beloved lodge and fraternity. I believe we all owe a tremendous debt of gratitude to the officers, who have carried the lodge through the last three tumultuous years at great sacrifice and personal risk. I would like to extend an enthusiastic congratulations to Right Worshipful Brothers Michael Mattes and Keith Josepayt on their well-deserved appointment to the Grand Lodge staff. I know I speak for all the brethren when I wish them well as they travel in and about the apartments of the Temple.

As to my plans for the upcoming Masonic year, it is my sincere intention to keep our business meetings brief and our time for fellowship, ritual, masonic learning, and charitable activities a major focus.

WM Peter Buchert

Trestle Board

In an ancient story that serves as an analogy in Masonic education, it is said that, during the building of King Solomon's Temple the Supreme Architect would retire to his chambers each day at high twelve, there to draw upon his Trestle Board the designs the Entered Apprentices, Fellow Crafts, and Master Masons would follow for their work.

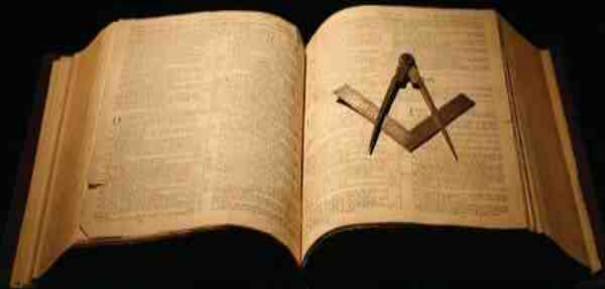

Today, in like manner, the Worshipful Master of the Lodge prepares each year a Trestle Board showing the schedule of meetings, events, and other plans the members of the Lodge can follow for the year.
